CHINA travel guide

Officially known as the People's Republic of China, China is the most populous state in the world, covering an area of approximately 9.6 million square kilometers. It is the world's second largest state by land area and currently the biggest communist country in the world.

Needless to say, this place has many attractions to entice its visitors, the most popular being Beijing, the city of several dynasties, besides the spectacular imperial palaces, it also possesses the most luxurious royal gardens and dazzling shopping malls. Shanghai can be described as the showpiece in the booming economy of the country. Though the beauty of Shanghai doesn't lie in scurrying from sight to sight, it definitely lies in the feel of the city's modern atmosphere. China is an intriguing nation with a lot to offer to a tourist, but consider your trip incomplete if you don't visit the Great Wall of China- an iconic symbol - being the longest wall in the world and one of the seven wonders. Another element that China is renowned for is authentic Chinese food, which is a much-savored cuisine and extensively available throughout the world. Shanghainese soup dumplings, spicy Sichuan food, and Beijing duck are just some of the distinct dishes you should try. It is, of course, the perfect place to pick anything from accessories to clothing, to electronics, Chinese products are not only eye pleasing but also affordable and pocket-friendly.

Day 01 - Arrive Beijing Enjoy the Golden Mask Dynasty Show.

Today, in the evening, enjoy the spectacular Golden Mask Dynasty Show. It is a fairy tale like story of war, royal banquets and romance. The play has 20 different dance scenes, with more than 200 actors representing a soul stirring and romantic great love and harmony legend. On arrival in Beijing, you will be welcomed by our representative and transferred to your hotel.

Day 02 - Beijing Full day sightseeing tour of Beijing
